Act of June 21, 1906, 34 Stat. 325, 364:

"That the boundary line between the Creek Nation, Indian Territory, and the Territory of Oklahoma, as surveyed by Frederic W. Bardwell in eighteen hundred and seventy-one, and re-established by the Geological Survey in eighteen ninety-six is hereby declared to be the west boundary line of the Creek Nation."

Act of May 24, 1924, 43 Stat. 139:

"That jurisdiction be, and is hereby, conferred upon the Court of Claims, notwithstanding the lapse of time or statutes of limitations, to hear, examine, and adjudicate and render judgment in any and all legal and equitable claims arising under or growing out of any treaty or agreement between the United States and the Creek Indian Nation or Tribe, or arising under or growing out of any act of Congress in relation to Indian affairs, which said Creek Nation or Tribe may have against the United States, which claims have not heretofore been determined and adjudicated on their merits by the Court of Claims or the Supreme Court of the United States: • • •"

"Sec. 2. Any and all claims against the United States within the purview of this act shall be forever barred unless suit be instituted or petition filed as herein provided in the Court of Claims within 5 years from the date of approval of this act, and such suit shall make the Creek Nation party plaintiff and the United States party defendant. • • •"
